

I am shocked by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is to me a clear violation of the rules of equal political airtime.

Use of the public airwaves is a privilage, not a right Sinclair needs to let the demands of the local market and rule of equity and fairness determine what goes on the air. A large conglomerate sending out their idea of news from some central point does not serve the best interests of the public Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
